Hi

This email is in regards to the complaint on your account. I can see my colleague has put your direct debit to £300. Again, i am really sorry about the inconvenience that has been caused. I have put a note on your account to make sure that your direct debit does not get adjusted.

The way Octopus works is when a customer does raise dissatisfaction, we are obliged to raise a complaint on the account. Now that your direct debit is set, please let me know if you are happy for me to close down the complaint on your account.

Kind regards,

Mariam
