Hello,

I can see there is a large bill due to a large debit from your previous supplier Avro, I can see that we are connected to the smart meter so are pulling reads regularly. Do you have a final statement from Avro in which you can confirm your final balance with them? If so this may help us with the large debit we have.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards

Hello,

I certainly don't owe you 1,443.50. £400 or so maybe, which I can sort now.
However I need confirmation that this is full and final settlement of all outstanding debt.
Also I'd like a proper statement, on paper please.

Regards,

Mark.

Hi. I have spoken to someone at your company.

But the basic bottom line here is you are not Avro. Different company. They went bankrupt, from what I understand.

I've been in business, I know what happens during insolvency and bankruptcy.

So I have no idea why you think it has anything to do with you, especially given I never even agreed to a contract with you. And still haven't.

But as I said, I've been talking to you already and am trying to sort this out.

Kind regards.

M. C. Cope.
