so hang on it was 599 a few weeks ago .

look in our of the country as you know I emailed you to say that I wish to pay 200 pretty month from now on.

I asked you to acknowledge that instead you have sent an 'arsy' rude letter not very octopus

so

- 1)! I'm raising a formal complaint about the nature of your response and the quote clearly attempt at intimidation.
- 2) I have a DD as far as I know. I want confrontation from you that the amount you ll take is £200 pcm.
- 3) you previously grossly overestimated my gas usage and I requested a breakdown of how that would be refunded.

as you will be aware the charges were mainly incurred when priced went thru the roof. so I expect the refund to be accordingly made so I need a detailed break down of how the refund easy made.

4) I wish to know exactly how much of the alleged outstanding balance is due to the previous company.

5);I have raised the issue previously with you regarding the fact that amount paid to the previous company were actual added rather than subtracted from the bill.

as you took over the account you would liable for that. I have asked about this on several occasions and got no reply.

COMPLAINT.

please raise a formal complaint regarding payments to the previous company which were added to the bill and which you then claimed I owed. you have the evidence raise another formal complaint about the lack of information and any transparency regarding how your gross overcharging was refunded.

detailed calculations cross referenced against bills for the wild period involved - which I would assume is since you took over the account so that is 3 separate complaints. I expect to receive notification of investigation shortly.

please confirm the agreed DD amount. you have no right to take unauthorised amounts from the account and I will raise a further complaint if this matter vid not addressed.

I'm currently out of the UK but could talk on WhatsApp.

or you can call me on my number in the Philipinnes just ask for it.

assuming I do not recieving confirmation agreeing to the DD amouny I will make payment via standing order.

please advise if your bank details reference to be used, etc.

your sincerely.

apologies for mobile typo look I am out of the country is what the rather odd line 3 or 4 lines in should say look forward to detailed responses.

Hi Mark,

Thank you for your emails regarding your account. I apologise for the delayed responses and want to let you know that we will be raising this as a formal complaint on your behalf.

Firstly, I apologise for the email you received immediately after your first message. This was in no way meant to be intimidating or a direct threat. It was an automated communication triggered by the cancellation of your payment plan, which started our collections process. I'm sorry for the timing of this and any distress it may have caused.

Regarding your direct debit, I can confirm that the payment plan has been cancelled. If you wish to set up a direct debit again, you can do so for £200 per month. Alternatively, you can make payments manually online or via standing order if you prefer. Just a quick note, we run an automated payment review every 3-6 months as regulated by Ofgem. If you ever want to adjust your payments in the future, please get in touch and we can amend them for you.

About the gas charges, these have been estimated. To amend the charges accurately, we would need an up-to-date gas meter reading from you. If you could provide this, we will happily update your billing and adjust the charges accordingly.

I have also reviewed your account and can see that the balance brought over from Avro was amended in 2022, and it appears to have been taken care of at that time. However, if there is a specific charge you would like me to investigate further, please let me know and I will do my best to assist you.

Thank you for your patience, and please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any further questions or concerns.

Kind regards,
Connor

Dear Connor

Do you recognise the words formal complaint

Your answers are absolutely not sufficient.

some of what you have said contradicts precious information I have been sent. eg. you don't seem to be aware of any gas refund and I have asked for specific figures on this

I gave you for complaints.
you have not even addressed them numerically.

Please initiate the formal complaints process as I really do want to get to the bottom of these issues which have been hanging around too long.

If you are not going to do this, just let me know so I can move onto the ombudsman asap.

please ensure any replies itemise exactly which complaint they are detailing with.

I will not deal with this matter further until I have been notified these complaints are under investigation.

I have previous emails where I have raised formal complaints and received no official response.

this isn't giving to look good when the ombudsman receives them.

re payment plan, I'm not sure what you mean really but if you guarantee in writing that the account taken will be £200 per month in happy to do a DD.

if you check in the post DDs have been taken above the prescribed amount.

if I don't hear from you regarding the DD within 7 days I'll set up a standing order.

Up to you.

I look forward to an official notification of my complaints.

yours sincerely,
m. c. cope
